Foreword

HORIZONS! Towering before us, our ambitions, hopes, and aims beckon onward. But the same goals have not always inspired us, for our horizons are ever changing. Our first aspirations were childish whims and fancies, which are now but memories.

About to take another step in the journey of life, we find ourselves closer to our true horizons. We view ourselves as the men and women of the business and professional worlds of tomorrow. Our ideals and preparations have been moulded and directed not only by the knowledge we have gained here, but also by the friendship and guidance of those who have taught us, and the comradeship and encouragement of our fellow students.

Although our aims will change still more and expand in the coming years, our days at Bloomfield High School will always assist us in reaching our horizons.

Dedication

To Miss Katharine Williams and Mr. Max Klein, our class advisers, who have guided us toward better and ever more enchanting horizons with an understanding and insight that have gained our respect and admiration.

Activities—Latin Club; Chemistry Club.

• HORIZONS •

MADELEINE E. BOWEN

Madge has spent only three years in B. H. S., having attended Barringer night school during her junior year. A very interesting girl with some very interesting hobbies, she enjoys music, and especially playing the piano. However, her chief avocation is photography.

FRANK V. BOWLBY

Frank is a friend of everyone. One of our irrepressible class jokers, he is especially good at quick come-backs. Frank's ambition is to become a millionaire, but he does not say in what field he means to attain this goal.

Activity—Student Patrol.

LOUIS G. BRACAGLIA

Lou can always be found snooping around on the Student Patrol. A constant smile and jovial manner best describe him. He is interested in athletics and wants to secure a place in aviation in the future.

Activities—Student Patrol; Chemistry Club.

FRANCIS J. BRADY

Frank is one of the more reserved members of our class. He enjoys watching boats come into dock, and spending a day in New York roaming around. He is especially interested in radio and collecting rare coins.

MAE E. BRADY

Action is what "Red" is after; Texas, horses and cowboys will provide this hoped-for activity. Down there she will be able to continue her hobbies of corresponding, riding, and collecting post cards.

Activities—Gym Team; Math Club.

BARBARA BRITTAIN

Versatile, popular and wonderful to know! Distinguished by her tactfulness and courtesy, she has earned the coveted positions of President of the Student Council, and Drum Majorette among other achievements. Personnel work heads her future plans.

Activities—Student Council, President; Band; Girl Reserves; Gym Team; Glee Club; Sub-Deb Club, program chairman;; Student Prints; Horizons.

HELEN M. BROCKEL

"The value of a smile." Helen must know the meaning of this, which accounts a great deal for her cheerfulness. Being artistically inclined, Helen will attempt to achieve success in this field of work.

Activities—Glee Club; Gym Team; Sub-Deb Club.

HELEN M. BROOKS

Brooksie is an excellent worker for the class. She has given her most helpful assistance towards class dances and social affairs. In everything she does, Brooksie is a good sport and a hard worker.

Activities—Girl Reserves; Chem Club; Home Economics Club; Riding Club; Prom and Junior Dance Committees; Senior Council.

MARY M. BROWNE

Mae has a sunshiny smile, cheery chatter, and a happy "Hi" for everyone. Skating and dancing occupy her leisure moments. Mae will prepare herself for a career by attending a business school.
Activities—"Top of the World".

ROBERT E. BRUECKMANN

Bob is well known for his good-natured and industrious manner. Chemistry and math strike his fancy, while a great deal of his time is spent on photography and music. Bob is headed for Princeton to study engineering.
Activities—Band; Orchestra; Chem Club; Camera Club; Stage Crew.

ELIZABETH BUDD

Lots of fun, a dash of seriousness, a ready smile, and lovely blonde hair—mix it all up and you get Betty. After graduation she hopes to study to be a C.P.A. Knitting and baking are her favorite pastimes.
Activity—Goon Club.

WILLIAM D. BUDD

Photography is Bill's chief hobby. Tumbling is another interest to which he has devoted his spare time. With his good sense of humor and cheerful manner he has become well known and liked among us.
Activity—Tumbling Team.

CHARLES BURCKNER

"Herky's" usual greeting is "How's every little thing?" This future mechanical engineer spends his spare time making model planes, developing pictures, and messing around cars. He hopes to go to Princeton.
Activities—Student Patrol; Photography Club.

DAVID F. BURDETT

Every play and assembly program depends on our busy, genial Dave, high potentate of all stage equipment. To be a radio engineer is his ambition, and Newark Tech will help achieve his goal.
Activities—Hi-Y; Stage Crew, manager; Student Council; Chemistry Club; Sphinx Society; Camera Club.

MARTHA J. BUSHBY

Globe-trotting and hobnobbing with the Duke and Duchess of Windsor seem to have been Martha's lot this year. Although rather quiet and demure, she is a most sincere friend, and credit to the Girl Reserves.
Activities—Girl Reserves; Top of the World; French Club; Girls' Glee Club; Jr. Mixed Glee Club; Sr. Mixed Glee Club.

JOHN A. BYRNE

Red hair, freckles, and a swell smile make Johnny an all-round popular fellow. Interested in many activities, Johnny hopes to become the foreign correspondent of one of our important newspapers.
Activities—Hi-Y; Chemistry Club; Track Team; Student Prints; Horizons.

RAYMOND J. CALLAHAN

Sports are tops to the versatile "Cal". Playing baseball, football, and basketball, and collecting sport pictures occupy Cal's leisure moments. Flying is to be his future, and Casey Jones School will be his next step. Activities—Baseball; Basketball.

WILLIAM G. CALLAHAN

"Cal" finds little time for extra-curricular activities because of his work as movie usher. When among his friends, his shyness leaves him and his true spirit is revealed. His interests center around scientific farming, which he hopes to study in the future.

PEARL C. CAPROFF

A halo of jet black hair and a beautiful complexion are Pearl's outstanding characteristics. Her interest in classical music is shown by her participation in Glee Club work. She will continue her business training in secretarial school.

Activities—Senior and Junior Gym Teams; Basketball; Archery; Girls' Glee Club; Mixed Glee Club.

DORIS C. CARLSON

Our brown-eyed and red-headed Doris is recognized for her attractive clothes and gay smile. Her hobbies of swimming, ice skating, and dancing certainly fit the vivacious "Red". The Telephone Company will be her next stop.

Activities—Student Patrol; Student Prints; Girls' Glee Club; Junior and Senior Gym Teams; Class Representative; Dogpatch Goodwill Society.

EILEEN J. CARROLL

Eileen's Irish blue eyes and friendly manner make her well liked by all. Her leisure hours are usually occupied with dancing, skating or writing, while her present ambition is to obtain a good secretarial position.

Activities—Spanish Club; Home Economics; Horizons; Dogpatch Goodwill Society.

AUDREY A. CATLOW

"Aud" is the girl remembered for her gorgeous red hair. Kept busy with school activities, winter and summer sports, and her dancing, she will in the future devote herself to traveling and being a good laboratory technician.

Activities—Girl Reserves; Swimming Club; Secretary-Treasurer; French Club; Bowling Club; Senior Play.

IRENE E. CAVANAUGH

"Wackie" is that tall, attractive girl with blonde hair and blue eyes. She has many hobbies, but bowling and knitting are her favorites, in which she shows great skill. She desires to become a nurse after graduation. Activities—Spanish Club; Bowling Club; Chemistry Club.

SPENCER R. COFFIN

A grand smile plus a vivid personality has won Spence many friends, especially among the "finer" sex. To be a salesman is his ambition, which he will pursue out in the West. Activity—Band.

JANET E. COLLIER

Janet's habitual smile and cheery "Hi!" have won her a host of friends. No matter what the task, she is always ready, willing and able. She likes any recreation which keeps her out of doors.

Activities—Girl Reserves; Band, Vice-President; Latin Club; Chem Club; Senior Gym Team.

THERESA M. CORBO

Theresa's likable personality and quiet attractiveness have made her well liked by her many friends. Included among her many hobbies are dancing, skating, and collecting snapshots. After graduation she plans to enter business school.

Activities—Dogpatch Goodwill Society; Goon Club.

DONALD COSGROVE

"Listen, Chum . . ." If you are greeted in that manner in a dark hall, it's that good-natured "Cozzy". Armed with a scalpel instead of a football, Don intends to enter the field of medicine at Johns Hopkins.

Activities—Hi-Y. President; Football; Senior Play; Student Patrol.

DONALD W. COTTON

Wit, cheerfulness and all-around ability are Don's welcome contribution to any group. But when 2:30 comes, Don hurries off to his job, so we do not see as much of him as we'd like to.

Activities—Football; Baseball; Basketball.

GEORGE W. COURTNEY

A modest chap with red hair and freckles is "Red." He likes all forms of sports, especially winter ones such as ice hockey and skating. His other hobbies are the movies and stamp collecting.

Activity—N. Y. A.

EVA F. COURTER

Eva is one girl who can successfully mix work with pleasure, for she ranks high in our class both for her scholastic ability and popularity. Strike! Another high score! Eva is both President and high scorer of the Bowling Club.

Activities—Jr. Gym Team; Latin Club; Horizons; Archery; Basketball.

M. ELIZABETH COYNE

A very friendly girl with a winning personality describes Liz to a "T". Elizabeth makes friends easily and keeps them long. Her hobbies are sewing, knitting, and art. She hopes to be a telephone operator.

Activity—Glee Club.

MICHAEL G. CRISCI

Mickey is noted among his classmates as a conscientious worker and an all-round good fellow. His hobby is wood work, and as a side line, meeting nice girls. Mickey hopes to be of service to Uncle Sam in the Army.

DOMINICK D'ACUNTI

"Barringer" is one of the newest members of our class, having spent most of high school life in Barringer High. We have been lucky to claim his loyalty to B. H. S. during this, our senior year.

ELIZABETH L. DAGGIT

Sparkling eyes and a charming smile characterize Betty. She is active in school affairs, and her hobbies include sports, sewing and traveling. Betty's ambition is to be a model, which seems most appropriate for her. Activities—Latin Club; Home Economics Club; French Club; Chem. Club; Senior Player Usher.

DONALD L. DALLEY

Donald is one upon whom you can always depend. He has shown his exceptional leadership and executive ability by editing this yearbook and leading many clubs to greater achievements. He is planning to enter the teaching field.

EDWARD C. DANIELS

Ed is a friendly chap who is well liked by his schoolmates. Interested in many sports, he excels in basketball. Among his other interests are tinkering with cars, and collecting stamps. He aims to continue his education at college.

Activities—Basketball; Student Patrol.

LENA R. DE CESARE

Lena is an attractive brunette who almost won the title of "Miss Bloomfield". She spends most of her free time dancing, swimming, bowling and roller skating. Lena expects to use her high school learning in the business world.

Activities—Dogpatch Goodwill Society; Junior Gym Team; Senior Gym Team; Goon Club.

HELEN G. DEHNEL

Helen's bewitching smile immediately reflects her friendliness. Her Gym Team work shows her to be interested as well as proficient in sports of all kinds. She will attend secretarial school in New York.

Activities—Junior Gym Team; Girls' Glee Club; Senior and Junior Mixed Glee Clubs; Spanish Club.

MICHAEL DELLI SANTI

"Keep your head down and follow through!" exclaims our noted B. H. S. golfer. Known to some as "McGee," Michael always has a good word to say about everyone. Besides golfing, he participates in ping-pong, fishing and hunting. He plans to be a draftsman.

Activities—Boys' Glee Club; Golf Team.

DONALD DEMMERT

Talented Don's assets are his good looks, excellent baritone and pleasant, courteous attitude. The bass violin and singing occupy his leisure hours, but the field of public accounting is his goal.

Activities—Boys' Glee Club; Mixed Glee Club; Orchestra; Choir; Serenaders; Musical Monday Club, President.

AGNES C. DICK

Agnes' charm and friendliness have brought her a host of friends. When "Dick" has finished searching for aqua regia in the chem lab, we will, no doubt, find her working out intricate problems for the Math Club. Activities—French Club; Vice President; Math Club; Chem Club; Girl Reserves; Class Basketball and Archery Teams.

FRANK E. DI COLA

Handsome and popular, "Pepsi" is a charmer of the fair sex. He employs not only the usual methods but also that terrific sax that he blows for the Scholastic Serenaders. Activities—Scholastic Serenaders; Orchestra; Swimming Team.

JOSEPH L. DOMALEWSKI

His neat appearance and gratifying smile are the main characteristics of Joe. He spends his leisure time on photography, dancing, and on his collection of stamps. Joe is going to join the United States Air Corps. Activities—Football; Basketball.

RITA A. DOMSOHN

Honey-blond hair and the nicest smile in the world are Rita's outstanding characteristics. After graduation she plans to be in the office of some business concern. Her natural friendliness and sincerity will be an asset in any office. Activities—Girl Reserves; Student Patrol; Sub-Deb; Student Prints; Horizons.

RAYMOND DORFMAN

Ray is characterized by courtesy and a friendly disposition. Our little man has done more than his share with his willing work in the music department. He is planning to become an apprentice in the mechanical or electrical field.

Activities—Band; Orchestra.

JEANNE-MARIE DOUGHERTY

Jeannie is that young lady with the beautiful brown braids. She is one of the most artistic members of our class, and spends most of her leisure time either drawing or designing clothes. Jeanne expects to go to college.

Activities—Glee Clubs; Physics Club; Hiking Club; "Pinafore"; Chemistry Club; French Club; Sub-Deb Club.

MARJORIE H. DOWLING

Midge can do any stunt on the parallels, and successfully shoot baskets from any angle. Her classmates and sports opponents can attest to her sportsmanship and good nature. Some office will have Midge as a typist.

Activities—Senior Gym Team; Basketball, Captain; Class Archery; Girl Reserves; Student Patrol; Student Prints; Glee Club.

JOAN DUPONT

"Sorry, fellow, my heart belongs to Princeton," casually introduces us to "Punchy," our favorite cheerleader. She has an entrancing smile which without a doubt is a sign of her charming personality. Her popularity goes to prove all of these traits.

Activities—Cheerleading; Gym Team; Girl Reserves.

HORIZONS

"You Can't Take It With You"

WE all remember that madcap production of December 6 and 7, Broadway's and Bloomfield's hit, "You Can't Take It With You," which was under the able supervision of A. Dixie Crosby.

The eccentric Sycamore family headed by Grandpa (Charles Fischer) was a group of unrestrained individualists who collected snakes, wrote plays, danced, and even made fireworks. When Alice (Shirley Heilman) announced that she wished to have to dinner the parents of her fiance, Tony Kirby (Jack Williams), the whole family made bustling preparations to insure a good impression. The arrival of the dignified Kirbys (Donald Dalley and Lorretta Edwards) on the wrong night during a "quiet" evening at home resulted in hilarious complications and an almost broken romance, and ended with everyone's being herded off to jail. Despite all this Grandpa skillfully managed to bring about a happy ending. . .

Charles Fischer really seemed to live the role of Grandpa as he so ably philosophized with an elderly drawl and puffed peacefully on his pipe. Marilee McLachlin, padded with a large bath towel and with her powdered hair pinned up, played the sentimental, gushing Mrs. Sycamore to perfection. One of the big moments in the play was the love scene between Shirley Heilman, who most favorably displayed her dramatic ability, and Jack Williams, who was his usual carefree self. Louise Kerian as Essie was her sparkling best as she pirouetted and danced through the play. Donald Dalley was a very convincing Mr. Kirby as he pompously raged and took the most undignified falls; while Lorretta Edwards as his wife acted her part with icy aloofness. And who could forget our class president, Ray O'Neil, who really filled the bill as the Russian ballet instructor complete with goatee and accent? John Bittig and Ed Missbach ably portrayed the husbands of Penny and Essie respectively. A hilariously funny colored maid and her boy friend were in the form of Doris Kelly and Bill Kuhn. Bill Reynold's characterization of the Sycamores' permanent visitor, Mr. DePinna, was uproarious indeed, as was that of Audrey Catlow in the role of the inebriated actress. As the beautiful Grand Duchess, Lorraine Stewart was a very regal and charming aristocrat. Warren Lackey portrayed an Internal Revenue Agent with a business-like air; while three cigar-smoking, rough, tough, and ready G-Men in the form of Bill Leahy, Joseph Zigmont, and Joseph Tillman enacted their parts with gusto.

Behind the scenes were three student coaches, Hermine Lempke, Florence Elliot, and Joseph Migliarese, who did everything from bell buzzing to prompting. Bill Scratchley, the stage manager, was constantly being paged. John Sheriff, David Burdett, Robert Brueckman, and Frank Freiler, all property men, certainly were needed to assemble the conglomeration of props necessary to adorn the Sycamore living room. Joseph Migliarese was business manager; Ellen Holborn, ticket chairman; Betty Stone, advertising manager; Shirley Heilman and Donald Dalley, in charge of publicity; Peggy Nagle and June Bishop, head ushers.

Class History

OLD FATHER TIME dragged his big volume from the shelf and turned to the entry marked 1937. Remember that year?

Our high school career began with a desperate hunt for home rooms and classes. Before that day was over, we were thoroughly bewildered by the avalanche of text books, teachers, and new rules; we had also been properly squelched by those superior seniors. But you can't keep a good class down, and we soon reciprocated by "copping" key positions on the honor roll. Doris McGuire and Elva Norgard had averages above 94 that first report, while Donald Dalley and Martha Hatcher took over next with 95 averages. David Smith became a sports reporter for the Student Prints and John Bittig, an assistant advertiser. The affairs within the class were being well executed by our 9B class council. The girls' class basketball team started its fabulous career, seven losses, no wins. Some of the girls signed up for 9A cooking too.

Sophisticated sophomores! At long last an integral part of this Bloomfield B-hive—flooring freshmen with our superior rank. Beatrice Toto and Charles Fischer attended the New Jersey Student Council Convention. Jane and Joan Rosenfeld, our twin musical prodigies, played the piano at a Christmas concert. Gertrude McCarthy was elected Consul of the Junior Latin Club she helped to found. Our class officers were Doris Hughes, Elva Norgard, Hermine Lempke, and Mary Lou Tabor.

Jolly juniors! Shirley Heilman entertained the Girl Reserves with questionable imitations of movie stars. Louise Kerian was almost carried out at the same initiation. David Smith became sports editor of the Student Prints, and Donald Dalley, assistant editor. John Bittig, Shirley Heilman, and Charles Fischer were largely responsible for the success of our Junior Prom. Class affairs were conducted by Doris Hughes, Charles Fischer, Hermine Lempke, and Mary Lou Tabor. The band played at the World's Fair. Schedules were given out—without 9A cooking.

Sedate seniors! Our last and best year! We elected Ray O'Neil, Arnold Mix, Irene Skorek, and Mary Lou Tabor to carry us through this final test. First our senior play, "You Can't Take It With You", labored through many hilarious rehearsals to a grand finale. Remember "Gramp" Fischer and "Lover" Jack Williams, playwright "Penny" McLachlin, and "those snooty Kirbys", Edwards and Dalley? Barbara Brittain took over the presidency of the Student Council. Louise Kerian became president of the Girl Reserves. Donald Cosgrove did likewise for the Hi-Y. Jeanne Fornoff proved to us her oratorical prowess. Eileen Walsh and Doris McGuire were members of a national championship archery team. Certain girls gave up and took their cooking lessons at home. Some of our most prominent class members succumbed to that infantile disease, measles! Remember the grinds for Horizons? And the annual pictures? How the boys came out just right and the girls all wrong? And now as Horizons goes to press, we look forward to our Senior banquet and to graduation, beyond which we already have glorious glimpses of new horizons.
